

Who is God? Who is Messiah? Who is Melechidedek?

Why should Jews believe in Messiah when God tells us not to have any other Gods other than Himself?

Can we prove that Messiah is a part of the Godhead?

This is the short story.

There is also the long story which goes into far greater detail and uses different Books of Scriptures to reveal the truth of the matter. In this short story, we are simply going to point out some very important details that many people either assume are true or false or that people just do not know, but are there to find.

Who is God?

God is an English term and does not reveal the Truth of who God is.

El and Eloah, which are two Hebrew words, are the singular version of God and Translate to “Mighty One”. The term God is just a made up English term that really should not be used, but has come to be a household word. I guess translators thought we were too ignorant to understand more exacting translations that give us a more correct understanding of the Truth.

Elohim, which is the Plural form of El and Eloah, Translates to mean “Mighty Ones”.

In Genesis 1:1 we see that Elohim created. (Hebrew Versions)

In Genesis 2:4 we see that the term “YHWH Elohim” is used for the first time. In Exodus 3:15 God tells Moses that His Name to be remembered Forever is “YHWH”. (Hebrew Versions)

Moses wrote the first five books of the Scriptures and wrote what God told him to write. So, the use of the terms YHWH Elohim relate to His Name and Title.

In English, all we see is God and Lord, but in the original Hebrew we always see El, Eloah, Elohim and YHWH. So, ask yourself if God or Lord are God’s name. When you come to realize they are not, then you realize that you do not know the Name of God to be Remembered forever.

Note: The term Lord has been used to replace the Name of God, almost 7,000 times in English Scripture, but when you read the KJV or Strongs Concordance it tells you that Yehovah/Jehovah is YHWH and the Name of God. Since that is the case, then why not at least use Jehovah everywhere you see the word Lord?

This is also important because in Hebrew and when Moses wrote the 5 books, Moses knew that the letters YHWH made up a sentence which said – Behold the Hand, Behold the Nail. So, the Name of God is the prophecy of the Crucifixion of Messiah as well as God's Name.

It is very clear that without knowing some Hebrew and Hebrew thought, the information we have learned in English will never do us justice in knowing the truth.

Now Melchizedek was the High Priest of God in Abraham's time. The Melchizedek that Abraham met was most likely Noah's son Shem and Shem was the Righteous son who followed God, just like his father Noah did.

In Hebrew Melchizedek is really Melchi Zedek or Melech Ha Tsadik and they translate to My King of Righteousness or The King of Righteousness, who also was the King of Salem (Salem meaning Shalom, Peace). You have to ask yourself who would be the ultimate High Priest of God above all other priests and who would be the King of Jerusalem.

As per scripture, we see many kings of Jerusalem including King David and King Solomon, and David was a Priest of the Most High God and from whose loins the Messiah comes from in the future. David was from the Tribe of Judah which is the Tribe ascribed to Messiah.

Why the need to ascribe a tribe to Messiah in the first place? There were no tribes called the Children of Israel until Jacob had 12 sons who became the children of Jacob, but because God changed Jacob's name to Israel, they became the Children of Israel.

I am not going to go into it, but God seems to love changing people's names. Every name change has a very important meaning which only gets revealed when translating the Hebrew to English correctly. Just know that Hebrew names have meanings and are not just names.

The problem comes in when people read Hebrews 7:3 of the Messianic Scriptures and determine that Messiah is the Melech Ha Tsadik and is the one that met Abraham upon his return from rescuing Lot from the evil kings.

I can surely agree that Messiah is the leader of the Melech Ha Tsadik order in both Eternal and Human form, but since there is an "Order of Melech Ha Tsadik", that means that humans prior to the coming of Messiah in Human Form were the Melech Ha Tsadik's of their time and were High Priests of the Most High Elohim.

Here are the questions that have to be answered if you know scripture.

If Messiah was the Melech Ha Tsadik (MHS) that met with Abraham, then did he show up for just one day in eternal form or had he been around for a long time living among men in eternal form or had he been living as a Human for a bunch of years while knowing Noah and Shem and Abraham?

Based on scripture, it does not make sense to think that the Messiah made His first human appearance as a manifestation of God several thousand years prior to His first coming as the Human Messiah that is being taught today in some circles.

What we do know is that the first five books clearly tell us that the Order of MHS existed prior to the Levitical Priesthood established in Exodus. What we are not told is whether the MHS Order continued at the same time as the Levitical Order or whether it was put on hold (so to speak) till a later date when it would be reactivated. We see that the Levitical Priesthood was to be put on hold when the Messiah came and tabernacled with us for 40 years prior to the destruction of the second temple and will be coming back to work, as per Zechariah 14 when the Messiah returns to Rule and Reign over the world for 1,000 years.

What we do know from the Messianic Writings is that God told Messiah that He was a High Priest in the Order of MHS Forever. What we see in the Book of Hebrews is that MHS has no beginnings and no end and has no father and no mother as per Hebrews 7.

For this to be the case, there must be an eternal MHS that is the Head of the Order and Human MHS's that carry out the work of the Priesthood similar to how the Levitical Priesthood was created to do.

God has no beginning and no end. God has no father or mother. So, Hebrews 7 first refers to the #1 eternal God and then to YHWH Elohim and then to the MHS that met with Abraham. Last but not least, it refers to the Human Messiah written about in the Messianic Scriptures.

Now Shem had a mother and a father so He cannot be the MHS of Hebrews 7. Messiah Yashua of the Messianic Scriptures has a Human Mother and was Impregnated by the Ruach Ha Kodesh (The Holy Spirit), so the Human Messiah cannot be the Eternal MHS, or can he?

So, YHWH is the Eternal MHS which makes sense since YHWH is the Creator or at least a manifestation of the creator to interact with us in created space and therefore at the very least is a Part of the Godhead.

It would then follow that if there were human MHS's such as Shem or Noah and others we are not told about, that when Messiah showed up in Human form, He would be the Messianic MHS as their needs to be a priesthood and Messiah declared that all believers were now part of a Priesthood.

Do not think this is in error because, before the Levitical Priesthood was established, it was to be every first born male child who would be part of the Priesthood and not the Levites.

We are also told that many of our Patriarchs were High Priests of the Most High. What Priesthood Order did they belong to?

We also see that when Moses was ordained by God to bring the Children of Israel out of Bondage in Egypt, that there were other Priests and other Prophets who had been and were still working for God that were not part of the Children of Israel. We tend to gloss over these facts which when looked at properly, clearly show us a more meaningful story.

MHS is so important to the conversation because it causes us to try and understand the Wisdom of God who presented these facts to us in the first 5 books and then we see these facts come back to life in the Messianic Writings.

If we simply put these facts together in the proper sequence and proper light, we get a better understanding of God's plan for Humanity.

Please note: Those of you that do not believe the Messiah came once and will return again to rule and reign for 1,000 years, it may be hard for you to do an investigative study of all the facts in order to see the truth of this matter. I understand that God may not have inspired you to desire to know the truth at this time and I can only pray that God will inspire you to want to know the truth of the matter.

Since God told Messiah He was a High Priest in the Order of MHS Forever, it stands to reason that a Human Messiah who ended up dying on the stake could not be a High Priest Forever in the Order of MHS unless He was going to live forever in Some Form.

For those of you that know the Old Jewish Rabbinical answer to unanswerable biblical questions, you can wait till Messiah shows up as per Zechariah 14 to find out if Messiah is Human or Immortal and the whys and wherefores of the MHS Order. But if you are not around or part of the 1,000 year reign then you will not get the opportunity to ask these questions to gain wisdom.

Just a few facts to make you think:

In the Scriptures, in the Book of Kings, we find a common man who died fell on the bones of the dead prophet Elisha and was resurrected to life. Based on the verse below which is purely Old Testament/Tanach, why should we not believe that Messiah was resurrected from the grave? Is anything impossible for God?

2Ki 13:21 And it came to pass,^{H1961} as they^{H1992} were burying^{H6912} a man,^{H376} that, behold,^{H2009} they spied^{H7200} (H853) a band^{H1416} of men; and they cast^{H7993} (H853) the man^{H376} into the sepulchre^{H6913} of Elisha:^{H477} and when the man^{H376} was let down,^{H1980} and touched^{H5060} the bones^{H6106} of Elisha,^{H477} he revived,^{H2421} and stood up^{H6965} on^{H5921} his feet.^{H7272}

H2421 châyâh khaw-yaw' הָיָה (Ressurrection of the Dead)

A prim root (compare H2331, H2424); to live, whether literally or figuratively; causatively to revive: - keep (leave, make) alive, X certainly, give (promise) life, (let, suffer to) live, nourish up, preserve (alive), quicken, recover, repair, restore (to life), revive, (X God) save (alive, life, lives), X surely, be whole. Total KJV occurrences: 264

Who is the Messiah?

Isa 43:10 Ye^{H859} are my witnesses,^{H5707} saith^{H5002} the LORD YHWH,^{H3068} and my servant^{H5650} whom^{H834} I have chosen:^{H977} that^{H4616} ye may know^{H3045} and believe^{H539} me, and understand^{H995} that^{H3588} I^{H589} am he:^{H1931} before^{H6440} me there was no^{H3808} God^{H410} formed,^{H3335} neither^{H3808} shall there be^{H1961} after^{H310} me.

Note: YHWH chooses who represents Him as the Human Messiah's, but YHWH and YHWH alone is the True Eternal Messiah.

Isa 43:11 I,^{H595} even I,^{H595} am the LORD YHWH;^{H3068} and beside^{H4480} me there is no^{H369} saviour.^{H3467}

Note: If YHWH is the only savior, we have to try to understand how YHWH gives us ordained representatives to me our Messiah's and also which type of Messiah they are to be. Noah, Abraham, Joseph, Moses, Joshua and many others were what I call Messiah Types or Mini Messiahs or Human MHS's.

Isa 55:3 Incline^{H5186} your ear,^{H241} and come^{H1980} unto^{H413} me: hear,^{H8085} and your soul being ^{H5315} shall live;^{H2421} and I will make^{H3772} an everlasting^{H5769} covenant^{H1285} with you, even the sure^{H539} mercies^{H2617} of David.^{H1732}

Note: There is a difference between your soul and your being as the soul is only a part of your being. The correct translation is being.

Note: What does an everlasting covenant look like? What good is an everlasting covenant if no one is around to enjoy it. Does everlasting have a time limit or is it only broken when Men break it. YHWH never breaks a covenant.

Isa 55:4 Behold,^{H2005} I have given^{H5414} him for a witness^{H5707} to the people,^{H3816} a leader^{H5057} and commander^{H6680} to the people.^{H3816}

Note: Who is this witness? Who is this leader? When looking at prophecy, is it possible that it could be fulfilled more than once and at the final fulfillment it is the ultimate Witness (Messiah)?

Isa 9:6 For^{H3588} unto us a child^{H3206} is born,^{H3205} unto us a son^{H1121} is given:^{H5414} and the government^{H4951} shall be upon^{H5921} his shoulder:^{H7926} and his name^{H8034} shall be^{H1961} called^{H7121} Wonderful,^{H6382} Counsellor,^{H3289} The mighty^{H1368} ~~God~~ (Mighty One or Almighty),^{H410} The everlasting^{H5703} Father,^{H1} The Prince^{H8269} of Peace.^{H7965}

Note: Why would God declare and then allow a representative of any type to be honored with such titles unless God were inhabiting that entity in some special way. After all, would God violate His own commandments so as to cause us to violate the command not to have any other Gods? I think not.

The Eternal God is the Eternal Messiah, and He manifests and appoints (whether Human or Immortal) at given times who Messiah is to be. We should not get hung up with the concept of Human Messiah actually being God in the sense that Messiah is the Eternal All Encompassing God that we cannot see, or even the YHWH Eternal God that deals with Created Space. It is not for us to know how these parts or aspects of the Godhead relate to each other or if they are somehow one and the same. What is important is that the manifested part of God that we are to deal with has been anointed to act as the supreme representative.

That being the case, it might be better to say that the Human Body whereby the Spirit of YHWH dwells is not God, but the Spirit within the Human Body is 100% controlled by God and is in 100% sync with YHWH.

If that allows Messiah to be considered God because in some form He is One with YHWH, then we are okay as we are not violating the commandment not to have any other God's.

So, the question that becomes most important is whether YHWH's Spirit that was within the Human Messiah ever allowed the Human Messiah to violate Torah. A complete investigation of the Messianic writings and the Torah/Tanach will show that Messiah never violated Torah. That being the case, He is the Messiah and everything written about him is accurate.

In the book of exodus we see that God told Moses that He would be a god/mighty one to Pharaoh? When looking at the verses below and the Concordance information, we know that Moses was not a God, but he was the ordained representative of God and was given great power, great vision, and at one point his face became so bright that he had to wear a veil. The reason for this is that God filled him with the Ruach Ha Kodesh (the Holy Spirit) to the point of overflowing.

KJV - Exo 4:16 And he^{H1931} shall be thy spokesman^{H1696} unto^{H413} the people:^{H5971} and he shall be,^{H1961} even he^{H1931} shall be^{H1961} to thee instead of a mouth,^{H6310} and thou^{H859} shalt be^{H1961} to him instead of God.^{H430}

TS2009 - Exo 4:16 "And he shall speak for you to the people. And it shall be that he shall be a mouth for you, and you shall be an elohim^a for him.
Footnote: ^aOr mighty one.

H430 'ēlôhîym el-o-heem' אֱלֹהִים

Plural of H433; gods in the ordinary sense; but specifically used (in the plural thus, especially with the article) of the supreme God; occasionally applied by way of deference to magistrates; and sometimes as a superlative: - angels, X exceeding, God (gods) (-dess, -ly), X (very) great, judges, X mighty. Total KJV occurrences: 2601

Note: (gods in the ordinary sense) – Magistrates – wait a second, how can we call anyone gods when there is only One God? The English leaves a lot to be desired when it comes to understanding scriptures. Therefore, little gods or magistrates are “Mighty Ones” to the people, But YHWH is the only Mighty One to all of creation. Now we can see why Elohim gave us one specific Name above all others to be remembered forever. Yes, God has other names and titles or descriptives that refer only to him, but YHWH is the Name that He gave to Moses to give to us to remember Forever.

So the question begs to be asked. Is YHWH God's name that is above all other names in Heaven as well or outside of Heaven where humans may never be able to go? Refer to Deuteronomy 29:29 for that answer to that question.

Please understand that there is so much information on this subject, including great sages who disagree with Messiah of the Messianic Scriptures, but in the end, everyone needs to Study to Show themselves approved.

You do not have to believe a word I have written, but if you do not study, you may find yourself on the wrong side of the answer one day and that will be a very sad day indeed.

In this humble writers opinion, The Human Messiah written about in the Messianic Scriptures is not GOD/GOD but He is the Anointed Representative of GOD/GOD to be an Elohim/Messiah to us.

In Hebrew, it is much easier to understand and accept then when using English.

And since there is evidence all throughout the Torah/Tanach to support things like Resurrection from the Dead, and Leaders like Moses being Elohim to Humans, I live with the knowledge that God would not cause me to violate His Commandment not to have any other Gods.

Now here is why this problem exists:

First, I must take the conversation of who is saved and who is not saved off the table as we are only discussing the teachings and traditions of men.

The Catholic/Christian, Christ named Jesus is taught to be a Non Torah Observant violator of Torah and who after His Death, the Torah was No More. All people had to do was believe in Jesus to be saved and in some circles, get baptized. (Much Longer story) They also teach that Paul the Apostle said the Torah was No More.

Unfortunately, these teachings are in error. But that does not mean that people cannot be saved who are Catholics or Christians. What it does mean is that, and to quote a wonderful commercial slogan, " A good shopper is an educated shopper".

True Messianic Teachings – understand that Messiah Yashua was 100% Torah Observant and never cancelled out Torah even after His Death and Resurrection. Paul also was Torah Observant and He never spoke against the Torah.

Jews understandably cannot deal with the Catholic/Christian Jesus Christ because he is made out to be a Christian and the word Trinity is an anathema because their understanding of Trinity comes from Catholic Teachings. To add to that the Jews have only seen persecution from the Catholic Church for 2,000 years and from the Pagan world prior to that for a few 1,000 more years.

So, to an educated Jew – Jesus, Christ, Trinity, Christian, Catholic and so on are all words that reveal hatred and persecution toward the Jews. No wonder it is so hard to talk to the Jews.

Paul said – be a Jew to a Jew and a Greek to a Greek. I add be a whatever to a whatever. Catholics and Christians know how to be a Christian to a gentile, but have very little education on how to be a Jew to a Jew.

Most of what is written here would be foreign to a Catholic or a Christian because it goes against most of what they have been taught to believe, even when they have been taught to love the Jews.

Satan has done a wonderful job of sowing ignorance, false teachings and mistrust into the entire world and most everyone has fallen for it one way or another.

It is time to learn the Truth and then Teach it in correctness.

And this folks is the Short Story on the subject.
