

Question 3:

This is all new information which I have never heard or been taught before. How can I possibly learn all this new information and what do I do with all the lessons and understanding that I have received through the years of being in the church world?

Answer 3:

We understand that there is a lot of new information and terminologies which are all new to those who have never heard this message before, and we realize that there is a lot of study that must occur in order to rightly divide the Word of Truth.

Since our eternity is based upon how we believe and live, it is imperative that our foundational beliefs must be able to withstand continual scrutiny and discernment as it pertains to Scriptural Truths and Doctrines. If we are unwilling to make the attempt to properly understand Yahuah (Father) and Yahusha (Son) and to worship as Scripture dictates in Spirit and in Truth, then we run the risk of being in disobedience to Elohim.

Joh 4:23-24

“But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father also does seek such to worship Him.

“Elohim is Spirit, and those who worship Him need to worship in spirit and truth.”

Joh 16:13-14

“But when He comes, the Spirit of the Truth, He shall guide you into all the truth. For He shall not speak from Himself, but whatever He hears He shall speak, and He shall announce to you what is to come.

“He shall esteem Me, for He shall take of what is Mine and announce it to you.

Remember the old saying, “If it is worth doing, it is worth doing right.” We must keep in mind that it is line upon line and precept upon precept.

Isa 28:7-15

And these too have gone astray through wine, and through strong drink wandered about. Priest and prophet have gone astray through strong drink, they are swallowed up by wine, they wander about through strong drink, they go astray in vision, they stumble in right-ruling.

For all tables shall be covered with vomit, no place without filth.

Whom would He teach knowledge? And whom would He make to understand the message?

Those weaned from milk, those taken from the breasts!

For it is: command upon command, command upon command, line upon line, line upon line, here a little, there a little.

For with a jabbering lip and a foreign tongue He speaks to this people, to whom He said, “This is the rest, give rest to the weary,” and, “This is the refreshing.” But they would not hear.

But the Word of יהוה was to them, “Command upon command, command upon command, line upon line, line upon line, here a little, there a little,” so that they go and shall stumble backward, and be broken and snared and taken captive.

Therefore hear the Word of יהוה, you men of scorn, who rule this people who are in Yerushalayim, because you have said, “We have made a covenant with death, and with the grave we have effected a vision. When the overflowing scourge passes through, it does not come to us, for we have made lying our refuge, and under falsehood we have hidden ourselves.”
