Please realize that what we are talking about is completely and totally different from what is being talked about and referred to in the traditional church world. We understand that this will cause some individuals problems, but nevertheless, we believe this to be a correct and accurate depiction of who the True Set-Apart Ones are.

We are not trying to change anyone's preconceived thoughts or notions but merely looking for those who have never been able to conform to traditional church doctrines and/or theologies but have always felt that there was more than they were being led to believe.

Those are the ones that we are looking to find and feel confident that we can provide each individual with the necessary Scriptural Truths to bring understanding and clarity of who they truly are and what they have been seeking after.
