

Departure From Hebraic Heritage Since Yahusha/Yahshua

- CE 64 Rome recognizes Gentile Christians as a religious group, separate from Judaism.
- CE 70 The destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem and the Messianic Jews flee to the mountains of Pella, which is located in modern-day Jordan.
- CE 98-117 Ignatius, Bishop at Antioch, writes.. “if we are still practicing Judaism, we admit that we have not received God’s favor and it is wrong to talk about Jesus Christ and live like the Jews.” The Jewish practices and the Christian lifestyle were not mutually exclusive and what he rejected, as Jewish were actually the commands of ADONAI from the Torah.
- CE 133-135 The Bar Kochba revolt, was when the Messianic Jewish believers lost their authority in Jerusalem.
- CE 135 The so called Epistle of Barnabas spiritualized the Tanakh, claiming that it only prefigured Messiah and the Christian Church. “Do not add to your sins and say that the covenant (the Tanakh) is both theirs and ours. Yes! It is ours; but they lost it forever.
It is valuable because it contains the first explicit mention of Sunday observance, by the Christians. It provides the basis for Christians to reject and forsake Jewish practices and take their new role, as the true Israel. He states that Sabbath is not a present reality but an eschatological rest at the second coming of Messiah.
- CE 100-158 During this era, Polycarp, a faithful witness of God’s Truth died as a martyr but not for the institution of Christianity as we know it. He was killed for his strong and resolute position, taking a stand against Easter worship and for Passover observance, as his mentor and teacher had instructed him. Polycarp’s mentor turns out to be none other than John the Apostle.
- CE 138-161 Justin Martyr, in his writings (Dialogue with Trypho), endeavors to show that the Torah was only given to the Jews because of their “sins and hardness of heart,” until the Messiah would come and “God imposed upon you the observance of Sabbath as a mark.”
Justin provided three major reasons why the Christians of the Western Roman Church met on Sundays;
1) to commemorate the first day of creation, when ADONAI transformed darkness into light,
2) because Yashua was resurrected on Sunday and
3) because the eighth day was more mysterious than the seventh day.

Furthermore; “ I accept all customs, rites, legalism, and feasts of the Romans, sacrifices, prayers, purifications with water., sanctifications by Pontificus Maxmus, propitiations, and feasts, and the new Sabbath “Sol dei” (day of the sun), all new chants and observances, and all the foods and drinks of the Romans. In other words, I absolutely accept everything Roman, every new law, rite and custom, of Rome and the new Roman Religion.”

They know only to satisfy their stomachs, to get drunk, to kill and beat each other up. I hate the Jews. I hate the synagogue. It is the duty of all Christians to hate the Jews. How can Christians have the slightest converse with the Jews, most miserable of all men...men who rapacious, greedy, perfidious, bandits...ravenous murders, destroyers, men possessed by the devil...The Synagogue? It is the, domicile of the devil, as it is also the soul of the Jews. Their religion is a disease.”

Spain’s large Jewish population had until August 2, 1492 to convert to Catholicism or leave. Columbus left on his voyage on August 3, 1492 and in his writings connected the date of his exodus with the saddest day on the Jewish calendar, the ninth of Av, which represents the same day the Temple was destroyed by the Babylonians in 586BC and the Romans in 70 AD. Likewise homes should be destroyed; they should be put in a stable; they are not the heirs of the promises of God and deserver to die. Deprive them of all prayer shawls, prayer books and communication, revoke all passports, stop them from doing all business, everything they possess, we believe they stole and robbed from us.
