

Draft of Press Lease to go out beginning of July 2017

God is on the move in the United States; Is There Hope for People in Need of Real Answers to real questions about God?

New studies shows 81 percent of Miami Florida adults surveyed identified with God, but only 37% felt as if engaging God on a one on one or congregational level was even relevant to living a quality lifestyle.

Dade County, Florida. – June 21, 2017 - As www.bemcf.com goes live across the United States, Beth El Messianic Florida, having reviewed several major survey's, sees a long term and unsettling trend to put God in the back seat rather than put God in the forefront where most seem to indicate is where God belongs. This trend has become a part of the fabric of Americans' lifestyles - a point illustrated by the fact that 63 percent of all believers in God surveyed age 18-75 have all but given up on God actually taking an active part in their lives.

To commemorate the launch of www.bemcf.com , Beth El is challenging everyone to take the time to step up and re-explore who and what God is and means in their lives. To this end, Beth El Messianic is more than willing to accept the challenge of explaining the value of God in the lives of everyone who is interested in getting answers.

Although many say they believe in God, there is growing annoyance with the distracted behaviors people exhibit while their heads are buried in everything but the Kingdom of Heaven. Most Miami adults indicate they have witnessed many examples of supposedly good people, acting very ungodly and out of character with the Word of God, yet relatively few have admitted to the desire to engage in more appropriate Godly behavior themselves.

With such a massive decline in societal morality and a falling away from the core belief that it is important to believe in God and act accordingly, we have seen even in the recent election, the breaking down of Godly behavior into ungodly behaviors.

The time has come to get back to a place where humanity on an individual and corporate level can work together for the betterment of Mankind and the Kingdom of Heaven.

We invite everyone to visit www.bemcf.com and start reviewing what we hope will be a start to better understandings and better choices by everyone when it comes to seeking the Kingdom of Heaven.

Beth El Messianic is looking to start two local area congregations, one in the Homestead Area and one in the Kendall Area that will work to answer the hard questions people want and need answered so they can believe in a True God that is interactive in their lives. Beth El Messianic teaches Non Condemnation even in the State Prisons locally, but also does not teach believers to compromise with those that would accept anything but the Real Truths as presented in Scriptures.

If anyone wants the answer to the Meaning of Life, just ask us and we will explain it to you in as simple and easy to understand language as will be required.

For Local Residents interested in improving their relationship with God, contact us and we will work quickly to establish a local presence to serve your spiritual needs as well as the others out there who are waiting in the background quietly and who desire to see these locations become a reality.
